Prayer Before Mass

Come, Holy Spirit, quiet my heart and my head, as I gather with my family, friends and neighbors to celebrate Mass. Quiet the thoughts and distractions that will keep me from worship. Open my mouth in prayer and song. Open my ears to hear God's Word. Open my eyes to the mystery of the Eucharist. Open my heart to receive Jesus with Love. May I go forth strengthened to take the Mass into my life this week. Amen.

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

"For they preach but they do not practice." The scribes and Pharisees may be the ones Jesus was speaking about in today's Gospel, but we must be careful not to dismiss his words when it comes to our own actions. Jesus offered a difficult challenge to those honor-seekers that we must also heed when he said, "The greatest among you must be your servant." Jesus wants people in positions of authority to serve those over whom they have influence. And he insists that the leaders who establish laws, and guidelines do not excuse themselves from following their own directives! "Practice what you preach".

Whether or not we have extensive public influence, almost all of us at certain points are in a position to exercise leadership—with our children and families, with classmates, coworkers, neighbors, and sometimes strangers. It's important to be sure we don't issue unrealistic demands on others that we ourselves would find it burdensome or even impossible to fulfill. This requires the virtue of humility. Instead of reveling in the authority we may have at any given moment, instead of creating "heavy burdens hard to carry and lay[ing] them on people's shoulders," we need to be ready and willing to walk a mile in their shoes, and lead accordingly. And Jesus tells us clearly that this servant leadership will be rewarded, for "whoever humbles himself will be exalted."

Stewarding our Gifts:
Who Are You Following

Today’s readings seem to be addressing a ministerial problem: power and arrogance. Malachi speaks to the priest of old and Jesus speaks of the Scribes and Pharisees. In both cases, the message is clear: do not mislead the flock. Throughout history, we have seen what happens when religious leaders become prideful and make poor choices. However, most of us are not religious leaders—we are the lay people. We, too, are in positions of leadership. We are parents. We are teachers. We are called to practice what we preach. We are called to set an example in the life we lead. We are called to serve God and to serve one another. So perhaps the questions we should all consider today are these: Who is following You, and where are you leading them?

Marian Mantle Group: For the return of our children to the practice of the Catholic Faith will meet Wednesdays at 5:00 pm. Praying of the Rosary, Parents’ Litany and The Way of the Cross.
